

Giuseppe Montalenti Awards

The Italian Society of Ecology in memory of prof. Giuseppe Montalenti, founding member of SIItE, Professor of Genetics and Ecology of the Sapienza University of Rome, Academic of Lincei and President of the same Academy (1981-1985), illustrious scientist who helped spread Ecology and Ecological Culture in Italy in the 60s-70s, establishes on the occasion of the online Congress of the Society that will be held in Lecce on 25/27 October 2021, three awards of 300 euro each for the three best presentations made at the Congress by unstructured young people, Members of the Society.

The examining commission it will be composed of the Board of Directors of the same Society and by prof. Alberto Basset.

At the deadline of October 8, 2021 at 12:00, candidates, in addition to being enrolled for the year 2021, must submit an abstract of their speech (maximum three pages) and a short CV to prof. Titti Vizzini (info@ecologia.it) and to prof. Elisa Anna Fano (fne@unife.it).

Riccardo Cattaneo Vietti Awards

The Italian Society of ecology in memory of the professor Riccardo Cattaneo Vitti, Member of SIItE, professor of ecology of the Polytechnic University of Marche and of the University of Genoa, brilliant scientist who left us prematurely last March, who contributed to deepen the themes of marine ecology, establishes on the occasion of the online Congress of the Society that will be held in Lecce on 25/27 October 2021, three awards of 200 euro each for the three best presentations made at the Congress by unstructured young people, Members of the Society.

The examining commission it will be composed of the Board of Directors of the same Society and by prof. Alberto Basset.

At the deadline of October 8, 2021 at 12:00, candidates, in addition to being enrolled for the year 2021, must submit an abstract of their speech (maximum two pages) and a short CV to prof. Titti Vizzini (info@ecologia.it) and to prof. Elisa Anna Fano (fne@unife.it).